THEME

"O Shapely flower that must forever endure!
O Voice of God that every heart must hear!
O white, white gem!"

The fleur-de-lis is a symbol that explodes into a thousand ideas. Besides enhancing the beauty of our contemporary school world, it draws our fancy back through the ages of history— into our French heritage from the Sisters of Saint Louis, to the glamorous courts of medieval monarchs, even to the mysterious world of ancient Egypt, where the iris was a central device.

We can only suggest the sense of history and culture, the thrilling identification we feel with other times and places, and the disturbing realization that reminds us of our part in the divine plan for all creation, when we see our fleur-de-lis.

"White and set with gold like the gold of night
The gold of the stars is quiet weather,
White and shapely and pure!"

Thomas McDonagh

DEDICATION

Louisville— born of a dream— has become a reality. It was born not only of a simple dream of buildings and landscapes, but also of a vision of the total development of its students. To Mother Mary Ronan, whose inspiration and guidance brought about the fulfillment of this dream, we dedicate Le Roi, 1965.

"The truest purpose of education is to cherish and unfold the seed of immortality already sown within us; to develop, to their fullest extent, the capacities of every kind with which God has endowed us."

Anna Jameson

A truly educated person has the ability to use the knowledge he possesses. Instead of a nebulous bundle of information, his education becomes an integral part of his everyday living.

The faculty of Louisville presents to us the facts. But, more important, through their personal example they give to us a more lasting lesson – a lesson in life.

FACULTY

Dear Students of Louisville:

The fleur-de-lis emblazoned on the cover of this second edition of Le Roi is, I think, a symbol of rare eloquence for the graduates of 1965. It traces its origin and history from ancient Egyptian civilization, through Etruscan and Roman cultures to Christian France of the crusading King Louis IX.

May the graduates of Louisville bring to their world some measure of the noble, refining and christianizing influence implicit in the theme of the 1965 Le Roi.

Sincerely in Christ,

Sister Mary Paul

The setting of Louisville:
a flowering of beauty through a blending of man's creations and nature's blessings,
and the ever present Fleur-de-lis:
on our jackets, GAA emblems, and coat of arms, reminds us of the many things we have gained from Louisville.
conferences on the Senior lawn, the spirit at the games, our advancement in knowledge, and a living appreciation of our Religion – memories which we Seniors now take with us into a new experience.

"Study?"

To the graduates, Louisville has meant activity. Classes, clubs, and games; discussions with teachers; Vocation Day, a "New World" talent show, and the first international day. We gained from each because we gave to each.

Gimme back my penny!

Will the real Louisville Lovely please step forward?

"To be or not to be ..." at least I think that's what he said.

The fairest flower in the garden of creation is a young mind, offering and unfolding itself to the influence of divine wisdom.

J. E. Smith

The Freshmen –
beginning the journey,
confused and yet unified,
a class working together to get ahead.

The Sophomores – now wiser, with a year of experience and reward, a year of realizing fun and work can be one.

The Juniors – preparing to step into their final year, full of an appreciation and enjoyment of Louisville.

The Underclassmen – seen in the Fleur-de-lis – a symbol of living change, each year presenting a greater challenge and a greater reward.

Dear Girls:

For four years it was my honor and pleasure to continually serve something I truly love—Louisville. My most sincere thanks to those of you who placed such great trust in me. You gave me the chance to give back to Lousiville at least part of all she has given to me.

Try to acknowledge and appreciate what your school—her faculty, administration, and students—can give to you. As is often the case, students fail to realize the value of their school until late in their Senior year. Please understand the importance of opening your minds and souls now, to the growth and maturity Louisville offers you. Remember just one thing for me—Louisville deserves all the love, respect, loyalty, and spirit a heart can give her.

May health and good fortune be each of yours now and forever. God bless you always!

Love,
Paula Sennes

STUDENT COUNCIL

The needs of school government are effectively met through the weekly meetings of Student Council. Representing the classes, homerooms and clubs of Louisville, Council members—under the guidance of Mrs. Katics—pass measures and discuss future legislation which will benefit the Lousiville Student Body as a whole.

VOTING MEMBERS: Homeroom Representatives; J. Ehlert, C. Murray, D. Hankewich, K. Stein, M. Moravec, J. de Matteo, D. Hansen; B. Ehlen, GAA President; J. Ides; Senior Class President; E. Wagner, Freshman Class President; second row: Homeroom Representatives; D. Smith, K. Mazzola, F. Hartman, M. Babbick, J. Flynn; M. Wilmes, Sodality Prefect; C. Hickenlooper, Homeroom Representative.

NON-VOTING MEMBERS: L. Yeakel, Historian; M. Donley, Library Club President; C. Ford, Art Club President; T. Keeler, National Honor Society President; L. Geary, Apostleship of Prayer President; K. Herdering, Assembly Chairman; M. Lavery, Parliamentarian; J. Acosta, Drama Club President.

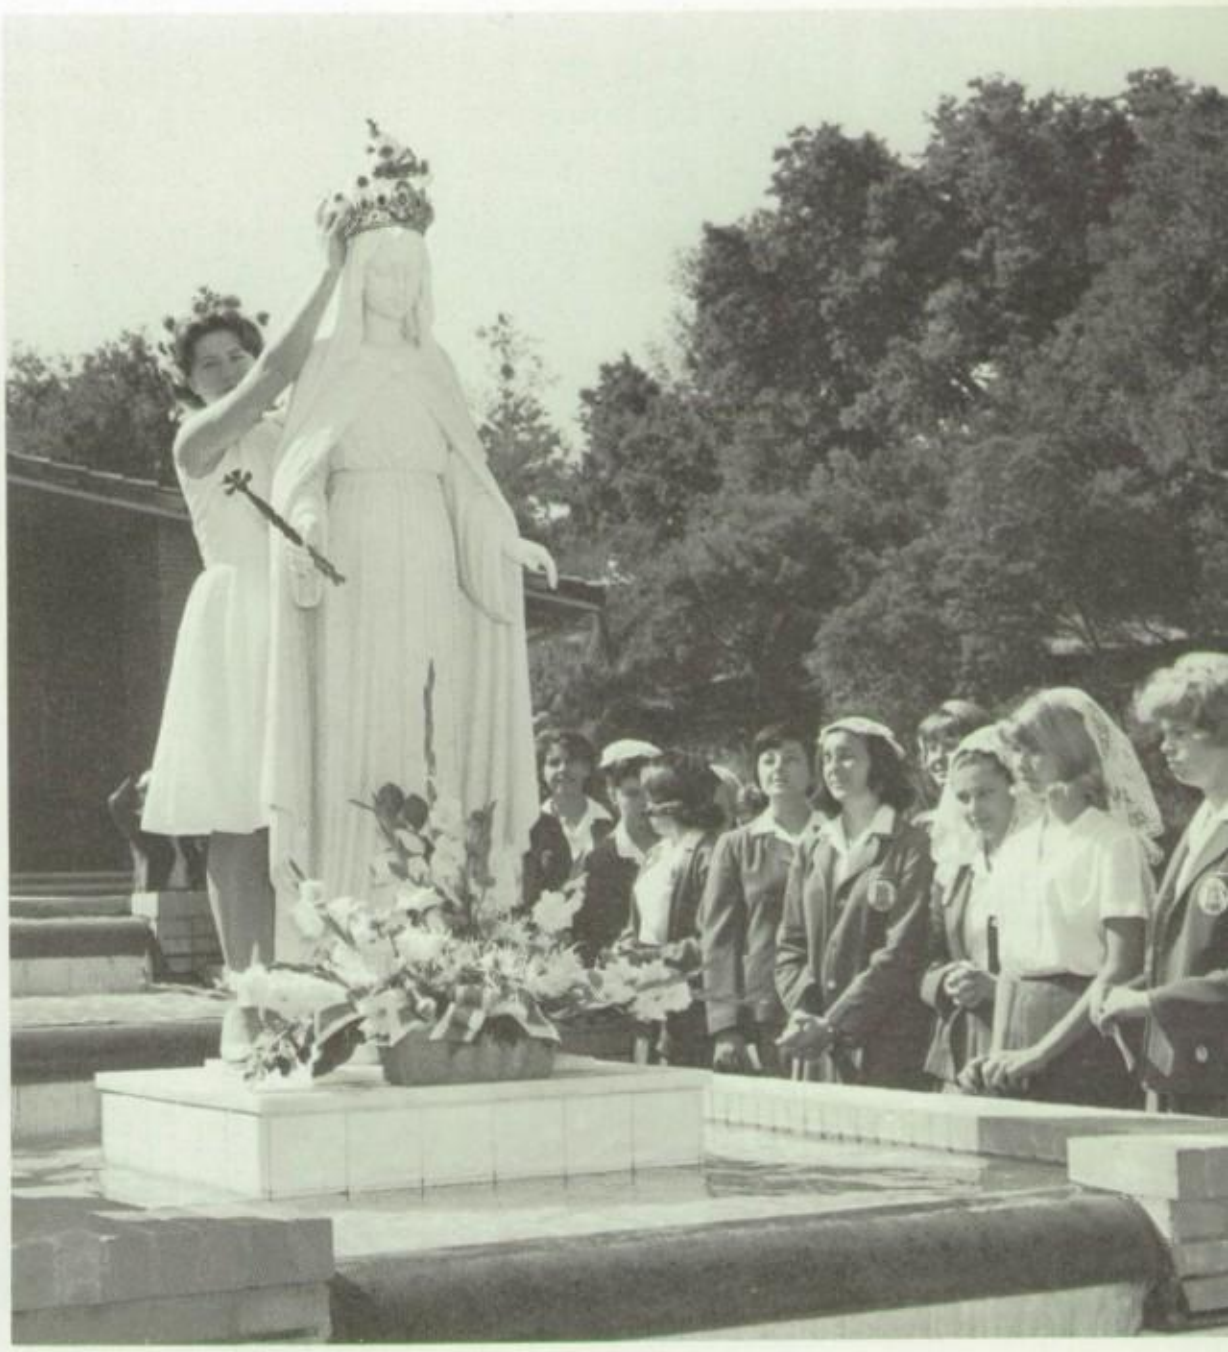
SODALITY OF OUR LADY

What is a real Sodalist? The word Sodalist comes from the Latin word sodalis, meaning a companion or associate of. Thus a sodalist of our Lady is one who has associated herself with the Mother of God in order to sanctify herself and labor successfully for the salvation of her neighbor and the spread of the Catholic Church.

The Sodality holds weekly meetings and has frequent General Communions in local parish churches—all part of the Sodality Way of Life. In their apostolic work, Sodalists organize processions in honor of Our Lady, hospital visitations, aid to the Missions and cooperate in the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

During the summer of 1964, more than thirty Louisville Sodalists participated in the Summer School of Catholic Action held in San Diego.

JUNIOR OFFICERS: Paula Hedene, Vice-President; Kathy Herdering, Treasurer; Kathy Joyce, President; Beth Kurzeka, Secretary.



Margaret Wilmes crowns Our Lady Queen of the Universe in the annual May Procession.

SENIOR OFFICERS: Jill Gerken, Treasurer; Patti Fuller, Vice-President; Margaret Wilmes, President; Ann Hedene, Secretary.

MASS

Father Germann, one of the many priests who came to say weekly Mass at Louisville, gave us many insights into the new liturgy. We were also given the opportunity to participate in a Mass of the Byzantine Rite celebrated by Father Urasov. This helped to make us more aware of the universality of the Church.

Girls in line for Confession during retreat.

A person needs a time for quiet, a time to think. Retreat at Louisville gives all of us an opportunity to leave for a few days, the speed and confusion of modern day life, and a chance to revitalize our inner lives through meditation and prayer.

Thought provoking lectures, informative books and pamphlets, opportunities for Confession and daily Mass help to bring back an awareness of God and our neighbor which may have been lost during the daily scuffle of life.

Between conferences the students are given periods which may be used for meditation and spiritual reading.

ART CLUB

The Louisville Art Club of 1965 has contributed much to the school because of their enthusiasm and talents. Art classes and the club are directed by Mrs. Harshman and students attend on Saturday in addition to weekly classes. The Art Club members were instrumental in putting together the scenery, posters, and programs for the school's production of "A Midsummer 'Night's Dream," and successfully presented their annual exhibition composed of work completed by the students during the year.

OFFICERS: Linda Shirley, Sergeant-at-Arms; Cathy Ford, President; Paula Leaper, Treasurer; Joan Machingo, Secretary.

LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library Club, under the direction of Sister Mary Concord, help to maintain and staff the Louisville library. They are aided by volunteer mothers from the Patron's Guild.

This year $150 was collected for the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library and the school received a portrait of President Kennedy by Clint Bradley in acknowledgement of our contribution.

A Hootenany, held in February, provided funds for new books and pamphlets.

Club pins for outstanding members, and St. Thomas More Reading Certificates for students who have read twenty or more recommended books during the year were given at the June awards assembly.

Louisville keeps in touch with the literary world during the summer months by participating in the National Catholic Summer Reading Program.

OFFICERS: Anne Salisbury, Parliamentarian-Historian; Margaret Mooney, Secretary; Kathy Wehrly, Sergeant-at-Arms; Joan Malneritch, Treasurer; Mary Donley, President.

LATIN CLUB

Latin is no longer a dead language to the members of the Latin Club. Through the enthusiasm and participation of its members, the club has had many enjoyable meetings and activities. The annual initiation of new members, skits, current films and scholastic competition, such as the APSL test and the college field day help members of the Latin club to realize the importance and significance of Latin today.

Under the direction of Sister Mary de Pazzi, the Club has grown, and as every new member pledges to promote the study of Latin, she becomes more and more aware of the enjoyable side of Latin.

OFFICERS: Teri Keeler, President; Margaret Wilmes, Vice-President; Jane Ehlert, Treasurer; Frances Riggs, Secretary.

SPANISH CLUB

The heritage of California is rich in Spanish lore and legend. Romantic Dons riding through moonlit streets, Padre Serra and his band of Franciscans trudging over the mountains, Conquistadores searching for gold in the High Sierras.

Through the study of the Spanish language we learn more about our inheritance and thus we may come to a fuller appreciation of our State and the Spanish culture.

Spanish club activities such as trips to Olvera Street, Spanish movies on South America, and our Pan America Day, which provided for a Flamenco guitar player to entertain the student body, help to promote the study of the Spanish language and make us more poignantly aware of our immediate background.

OFFICERS: Dee Rickets, Secretary; Mary Buzzetti, Vice-President; Dolores Doran, President; Maria deZarraga, Treasurer; Kathy Wehrly, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Jean Ricci, Margaret Flores and Mary Buzzetti work on the Spanish Club's newspaper.

Mrs. DuBarry, moderator of the club for this year, speaks to the club about Spanish as a career.

FRENCH CLUB

OFFICERS: Mary Meziere, Sergeant-at-arms; Lee Geary, President; Diana Bartholomew, Vice-President; Geri Silveira, Treasurer.

The French Club, directed by Sister Mary Molua, has twice received awards at the Mount Saint Mary's Language Festival.

Several filmstrips of France were viewed during the year. Catherine Plancke—Louisville's exchange student from Lille, France—spoke to the club on the French educational system. French Club meetings aim at helping in the education of the French students, and in stimulating their interest in France—a land of many traditions.

SCIENCE CLUB

Now affiliated with the Future Scientists of America, the Science Club this year hopes to stimulate special interest in the space era and acquaint the girls with many of the space projects.

The annual Science Fair, held in the spring, was our main project. The girls displayed projects they had been working on for several months. The club outing to the North American Research Center was also of special interest. Dr. Burr gave a tour of the Center which included many atomic chemistry projects.

OFFICERS: Cathy Cobb, Secretary-Treasurer; Ann Hedene, President; Debbie Smith, Vice-President.

LITERARY MAGAZINE STAFF

The staff of the Aurora, an annual publication of students' creative writings, began work in February on the fourth edition. Their work entailed selecting entries for the magazine from the many poems, critical papers, essays and short stories submitted by the students.

This year the staff was under the direction of Miss Menges, our moderator, and Mrs. Katics, head of the English department. Dee Rickets was editor and Mary Dolan and Janet Flammang were the assistant editors.

The staff, with its moderator Miss Menges, judge the work submitted by the students.

SERVICE CLUB

OFFICERS: Cathy Herdering, Vice-President; Barbara Wagner, Secretary-Treasurer; Mary Meziere, President.

Louisville's Service Club, established under the sponsorship of the National Honor Society, has contributed frequently and consistently to the school.

They have shown an active interest in school order, projects and activities. They help at weekly Mass and various assemblies by providing for proper seating. Their invaluable help at Louisville's first annual Homecoming included serving, accepting tickets and clean-up. They also hostessed at the Teachers' Conference held at Louisville in January.

PATRONS GUILD

The Patrons Guild is a vital part of Louisville life. Consisting of the parents of the students, the Patrons Guild holds monthly meetings, voluntarily gives aid to the school library, and sponsors fund raising activities, such as the get-together brunch which was held early this year. This work benefits Louisville financially, but more important, it increases communication between parents and faculty.

FATHER-DAUGHTER NIGHT

Audience watching the skits.

A barn dance—a casual, but exciting atmosphere—left the traditional formality of Louisville's Father-Daughter Night far behind.

After a performance by professional square-dancers and skits put on by the students, fathers and daughters joined to square dance, many for the first time.

CHOIR

Under the direction of Sister Mary Paul and Mr. Paul Salamunovich, the choir has performed in a variety of activities. It has sung both a midnight and a Morning Christmas Mass in St. Mel's Church and in Our Lady of Grace Church, and working in collaboration with the Drama Department, the choir presented "A Midsummer's Night's Dream," one of the biggest events of the year. The Choir has also participated in the Mount St. Mary's Invitational Festival and in the Valley Regional Festival.

Designed to help bring the joy of music to the girls of Louisville, our choir plays an important part in the development of the students.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club of 1965 has sponsored and participated in numerous activities which have benefited the whole school. Under the direction of Miss Barbara Clem, Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was presented to the general public. In December Miss Mohr accompanied several girls to the VillaCabrini Speech Tournament where they were awarded seven certificates of merit. Students also attended a production of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "Iolanthe".

During the second semester the Student Body was honored by a presentation of "Pygmalion" by Miss Mary Louise Hickey. On March 7 Drama Club members attended a Theater Conference on "Theater in the Round" at Immaculate Heart College. Using the information they gained, students directed and produced several one act plays in the round in class and presented them to the Student Body.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

The Challengers set the mood for the Sophomore Invitational. The theme "On your heart, get set, go!" was excellently displayed in the decorations and all enjoyed the evening.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE

The theme of the Junior-Senior Dance, November Nocturne, celebrated the closing of summer months and the advent of winter festivities. This casual-invitational dance rocked to the music of the Fireballs.

HOMECOMING

Christmas trees, holly wreaths, formals and holiday music set the mood for Louisville's first Homecoming. "Memory Wreaths" welcomed back Louisville's alumnae in the midst of the holiday spirit. This dance was one of the social highlights of the year and will be an annual event.

Dear Lord,
In the battle that goes on through life,
I ask but a field that is fair.
Give me the strength to meet the strife,
The courage to do and to dare.
If I should win let it be by the code
Of my faith and my honor held high.
If I should lose let me stand by the road
And cheer as the winner goes by.

Barbara Ehlen and Sue Schaefer sell cupcakes for the club.

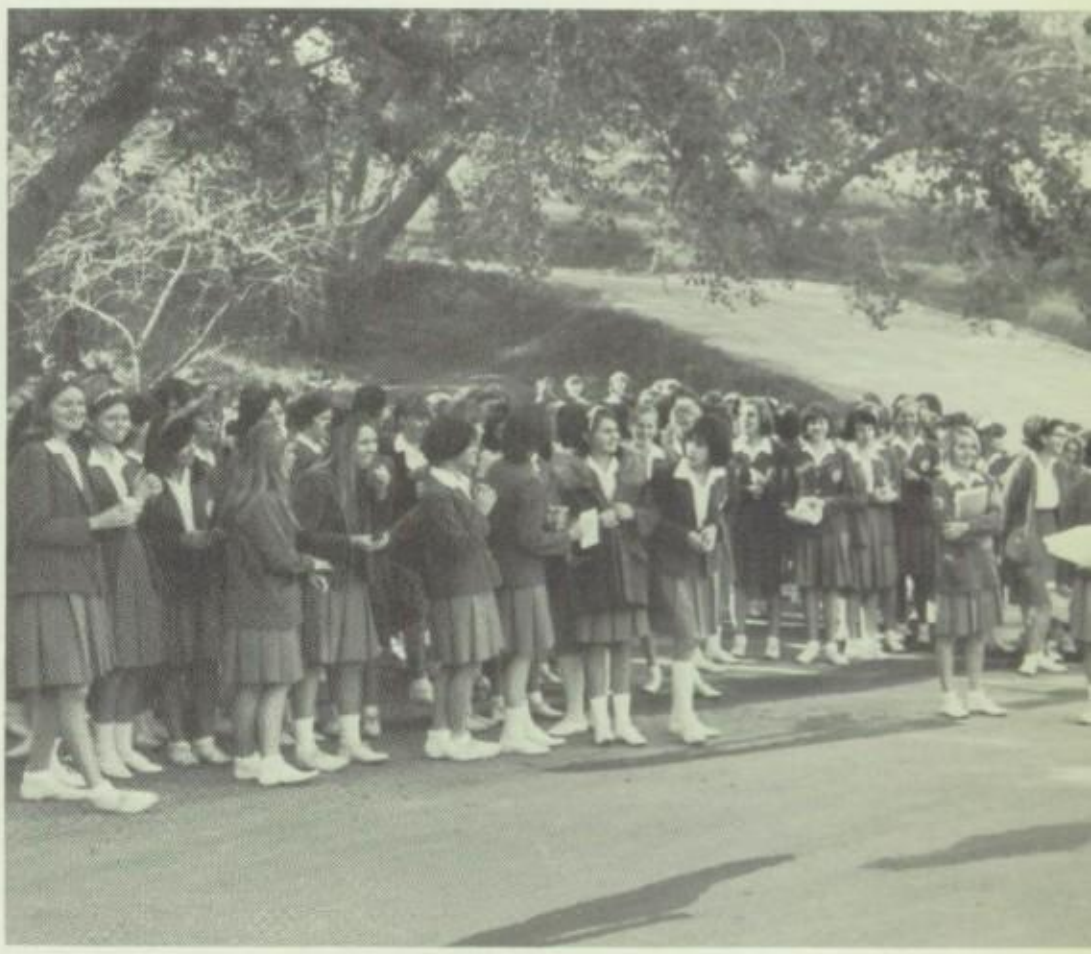
Under the direction of Miss Yanis, the GAA has done much this year to stimulate an interest in sports among the Louisville Student Body. Competition between Louisville and other schools, and intramural competition among our students include basketball, volleyball and tennis. These games and the cupcake, candy and taco sales are some of the activities which allow the participation of all the members of the club.

The eighth grade volleyball and basketball playdays sponsored by the GAA were a great success. This year Louisville also sponsored its first high school playday. Awards night climaxed the year with the presentation of trophies and awards to those who excelled in sports.

PEP CLUB

OFFICERS: Chris Whittaker, Sergeant-at-arms; Nancy Rizzo, Secretary-Treasurer; Noel Mc Cluskey, President.

Pep Club is the center of spirit within the school. It supports not only the sports activities, but promotes enthusiasm in all extra curricular events involving the school. The song leaders, Carol and Carolyn Block, along with the cheerleaders, arouse this spirit and enthusiasm by their attendance at pep rallys held in preparation for games. Pep Club also provides transportation for Volleyball and Basketball tournaments. To help finance this transportation, pop corn and candy sales are held.



Song leaders Carol and Carolyn Block.

CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders form the connecting link between the players on the court and the participants in the audience. Countless hours are spent in writing and perfecting cheers and in gaining the enthusiasm, spirit and support the team needs from the rest of the school.

IN APPRECIATION

As the last deadline of the LE ROI is met, I find that I have many, many people to thank for the time and the effort which they gave so willingly to this edition. It has been the combined work of these which has made this, your yearbook, the original and complete volume that it is. We, the staff, have tried to give an accurate account of all of the major events of this year, including the Junior-Senior Prom, and a memento of Graduation. We hope that in the years to come you may be able to leaf through the pages of the LE ROI '65 and renew the memories of this wonderful school year.

To the faculty of Louisville, I extend my sincerest gratitude for the experience of editing this yearbook. The challenge and the enjoyment that I have derived from my editorship will always be one of my fondest memories.

To Sister Mary Paul, whose pointers and encouragements helped us through the difficult spots, I express the appreciation of the staff.

Many thanks to the staff for all of their invaluable aid and suggestions. Through our work together this year, we have all grown; both in knowledge of yearbook creation and management, and also, and probably more important, in the knowledge of personal relations, the "science of working together."

There have been a good number of girls, not on the staff, who have eagerly given their time and talents to the production of this book. Although we tried on the staff page to give them the credit that they deserved, we were unable to acknowledge all of them because our space was limited. To these, the staff says. "Thank you so much for all that you have done."

To Crowley and Smith Photographers, who have been so co-operative and so patient, and who have done so much to help us reach our deadlines, I express heartfelt appreciation.

I would like to thank all of the student body for their support of this annual. I only hope that you are as proud of it as we are.

To the Seniors—May you have the best of everything throughout your lives.

To the Underclassmen—May your remaining years at Louisville be fruitful as well as enjoyable.

God love you all,
Dolores Doran
Editor-in-Chief.

THANKS, thanks for everything you have ever done for me.
Love always,
Barbara

Dear Miss Yanis —

The laughter we have learned to share will echo though the years — I'll never forget all the wonderful things you have done for me at Louisville. I'll never forget my freshman yar. I was in three of your classes, Science, Spanish and P. E. It was though these classes and sports after school that my admiration and love for you grew. When my senior year came along, I never thought I could get through it without being in any of your classes, but I seemed to manage. I'll always remember both the good and bad things that happened during my high school days. Like the time we hopped the fence. Boy, did we ever get it. I was never in my life so sorry for doing something wrong. But there are somany pleasant and exciting things that happened that the little things I did wrong will soon be forgotten ... I hope. I'll never forgit the great times we had at the summer camp and all the tournaments we anpiously awaited or even the exciting tennis lessons you gave me. At the time I hated them. Being president of H. A. A. in my senior yar meant a lot to me. There were so many things that we did together. I could go on and on, but that would be pointless because you can probably remember them as clearly as I can. There is one very important thing I have to say and that is,
